Intelligent Transportation Systems Commercial Vehicle Operations

4 Sept. 2008

Rex Young
Chief, CVE
RELATIVE SIZE OF ALASKA AND THE CONTERMINOUS U.S.
Alaska's ITS/CVO Program Goals

- Support FMCSA’s goal to reduce fatalities and injuries
- Improve transportation efficiencies through electronic screening
- Improve customer service through automation
- Improve safety through use of technology
- Improve compliance with State and Federal regulations
Alaska
Commercial Vehicle Information Systems and Networks (CVISN)
Advanced CVO
Program Achievements

ITS/CVO Business Plan

March 1999

CVISN Architecture

April 2001
Updated 2006

Aspen Deployed to Officers

September 2001

IRIS Van Purchased

March 2002
Program Achievements

- On Line Permits CVIEW Cert: June 2006
- Automated Permits: May 2007
- AVI Construction Complete: August 2007
- Transponder Issue/Level 1 Certification: October 2007
Ongoing Projects

- Electronic Citations
- Electronic 12-200
- Mobile Inspection Station
- Expand to Sterling, Fox and Tok
Ongoing Projects

- PRISM
- Advanced CVISN BP
Alaska’s ITS/CVO
Public Private Partnership

Federal Government
U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration
Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration

State of Alaska
Dept. of Public Safety
Alaska State Troopers
Dept of Administration
Dept. Motor Vehicles
Alaska Railroad Corporation

Alaska Trucking Association
Teamsters Local #959
Alaska West Express
Carlile Transportation Systems
CSX Lines of Alaska
Lynden Transport
Sourdough Express
Totem Ocean Trailer Express
Weaver Brothers